

API Gateway acts as the entry point for client applications requests to suitable services.

User Management service handles user authentication ,authorization, and user profile management

Work Order Service handles create, modify, and delete the work orders

Property Management handles responsible for specific property operations such as predefined work orders for regular electricity maintenance.

Transaction Service handles the record and process of work order transactions